

Atlanta JA Educator of the Year Award

Each year, Junior Achievement of Georgia recognizes an outstanding educator who passionately believes in JA's mission to inspire and prepare young people to succeed in a global economy. This award is in recognition of work done during the 2008/2009 school year. Nominations must be submitted to Rebecca Stoll by November 16, 2009.

A JA Educator of the Year:

- Has partnered with JA of Georgia for at least two years
- Actively seeks to involve his or her students in multiple JA programs each year
- Works well with JA volunteers
- Encourages his or her students to participate in JA outside the traditional classroom setting, either in the JA Fellows or in teaching JA programs to younger students (if a high school teacher)
- Is an advocate for JA, promoting its curriculum to colleagues

JA of Georgia will recognize this teacher on its website, send an announcement to the teacher's local media and share the award with the superintendent of the teacher's school district. The JA Educator of the Year will also be recognized in JA of Georgia's annual JA Atlanta Business Hall of Fame insert in the Friday, March 12th, 2010, edition of the Atlanta Business Chronicle and is invited to bring a guest to the black tie gala on Saturday, March 13th, 2010. The gala is attended by approximately 450 of Atlanta's top business executives and leaders. This educator is also invited to attend the JA of Georgia annual meeting at the end of June, 2010.

JA of Georgia is excited and proud to partner with so many dynamic educators. To nominate an outstanding JA teacher, principal, graduation coach or guidance counselor, please visit the JA of Georgia website at www.georgia.ja.org Nominations are due to Rebecca Stoll – rstoll@georgia.ja.org or fax to 404.843.3194 – by November 16, 2009.
