

Atlanta JA Volunteer of the Year Award

Each year, Junior Achievement of Georgia recognizes an outstanding volunteer who passionately believes in JA's mission to inspire and prepare young people to succeed in a global economy. This award is in recognition of work done during the 2008/2009 school year. Nominations must be submitted to Rebecca Stoll by November 16, 2009.

A JA Volunteer of the Year:

- Has partnered with JA of Georgia for at least two years
- Actively seeks to volunteer several times each school year and is willing to work with students of all ages
- Works to ensure students understand the relevancy of JA curriculum by providing personal experience or researching related current events
- Is an advocate for JA, promoting the volunteer opportunity to colleagues

JA of Georgia will recognize this volunteer on its website and send an announcement to the volunteer's local media. The JA Volunteer of the Year will also be recognized in JA of Georgia's annual JA Atlanta Business Hall of Fame insert, which will be in the Friday, March 12th, 2010, edition of the Atlanta Business Chronicle and is invited to bring a guest to the black tie gala on Saturday, March 13th, 2010. The gala is attended by approximately 450 of Atlanta's top business executives and leaders. The JA Volunteer of the Year is also invited to attend the JA of Georgia annual meeting held at the end of June, 2010.

JA of Georgia is excited and proud to partner with so many dynamic business volunteers. To nominate an outstanding JA volunteer, please visit the JA of Georgia website at www.georgia.ja.org Nominations are due to Rebecca Stoll – rstoll@georgia.ja.org or fax to 404.843.3194 – by November 16, 2009.
